

Information for regular readers of the Commonwealth Human Rights Law Digest

INTERIGHTS hopes you have received the special issue of the Commonwealth Human Rights Law Digest focussing on Security and the Rule of Law of interest. This publication was disseminated free of charge in January 2009 to our regular readers in addition to the normal Digest publication run.

The last edition of the Commonwealth Human Rights Law Digest was volume 6, issue 1, published in January 2008 (cover dated Autumn 2007).

The next issue will be volume 6, issue 2. Publication is scheduled for Spring 2009 and be followed by volume 6, issue 3 in Autumn 2009.

We hope you continue to find the Digest a useful resource. We very much welcome your comments and suggestions.

INTERIGHTS holds consultative status with the United Nations' Economic and Social Council, the Council of Europe and the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights. It is accredited with the Commonwealth Secretariat and is authorised to present collective complaints under the European Social Charter.

INTERIGHTS is a registered charity in the UK number 292357.