

Subscribe to the INTERIGHTS Bulletin

The Bulletin is INTERIGHTS' flagship journal containing substantive articles on issues of international human rights law, news and comment on significant developments.

Each issue focuses on a topic relevant to INTERIGHTS' key areas of focus: economic and social rights, equality and security and the rule of law.

The INTERIGHTS Bulletin also features an international law report section which contains summaries of major recent human rights decisions from different international and regional courts and tribunals.

Subscription rate per Volume:
